

Policy for Multiple Scopes of Practice¹

Health practitioners may work in more than one scope of practice if they meet the following conditions:

- a. Meet the registration and renewal requirements of both scopes of practice; and
- b. Maintain active employment in both scopes of practice in line with the PLC's break from practice policy.